~ Meet the Commissioners ~

Bob Sahr has focused on consumer protection and renewable energies as Public Utilities Commissioner. In January 2003, he was elected Chairman of the South Dakota Public Utilities Commission.

Bob led the effort to reduce unwanted telemarketing calls through the creation of the South Dakota Do-Not-Call List. As a result, more than 150,000 phones in the state have been registered on the list, and these households now receive far fewer interruptions from telemarketers.

In 2003 the PUC worked closely with the Governor's Office and the Rural Electric Association to pass a new law that gives incentives for wind power development. This set the stage for the completion of South Dakota's first major wind project near Highmore, South Dakota.

Chairman Sahr travels the State of South Dakota putting on consumer protection seminars for senior citizens and other groups. He currently is working to improve the quality of cell phone service. He serves on a national telecommunications committee and on a national task force focusing on protecting utilities from terrorism attacks.

Bob grew up in Pierre, South Dakota. He graduated with honors from the University of Colorado, Boulder in 1989 and then worked in sales and marketing for Michelin Tire Corporation. Bob earned his law degree from the University of Colorado School of Law where he was selected to Who's Who Among American Law Students and awarded the Bronze Key for service to the American Bar Association's Law Student Division.

Both sides of his family settled in South Dakota in the 1880s. Bob and his wife, Christine, welcomed their first child, Allison, in November 2002. Bob serves on the Pierre Municipal Library Board and is the past president for Oahe Habitat for Humanity, past board member of the Countryside Hospice Board and the State Bar of South Dakota Bar Commission.

Gary Hanson was elected to the Public Utilities Commission in November 2002. He currently serves as Vice Chairman, and was selected to represent South Dakota on the Organization of MISO States. Consumer protection, wireless phone services, prudent utility regulation, and renewable energy development are issues Gary works to improve for all South Dakotans.

Gary is the fourth generation of his family to live and work in South Dakota. He was elected twice to be the Utilities Commissioner for Sioux Falls, where he was responsible for three municipal utilities. Gary also served two terms as Mayor of Sioux Falls. It was under Gary's leadership that the community grew by 33,000 and saw tremendous civic development. As mayor, he oversaw 1,100 employees and an annual budget of over $200 million for Sioux Falls. Both of these experiences give Gary a uniquely qualified perspective about issues that are brought before the PUC.

Prior to local service, Gary served three terms as a state senator where he chaired the Government Audit and Operations Committee, and was vice chairman of the Senate Taxation Committee. Gary's leadership abilities are further exemplified in the roles he played as founder and past chair of the Lewis and Clark Rural Water System – the largest drinking water infrastructure project in the history of South Dakota.

Gary is married with three children, one grandchild and three grandchildren expected to make their arrival in 2004. He is active on several community and industry boards and is a lifetime member of the Lion's Sight and Service Foundation. He enjoys skydiving, hunting, fishing and coaching youth sports.

Jim Burg is a farmer, businessman, soldier and a public servant. Jim is a 1963 graduate of South Dakota State University, a past state 4-H president, a past board member of the South Dakota Chamber of Commerce and past board member and secretary-treasurer of the South Dakota Retailers Association.

Jim served in the South Dakota National Guard from 1963 until 1990 when he retired with the rank of Lt. Colonel.

Jim served in the South Dakota House of Representatives from 1975-1984 and the State Senate during the 1985-1986 term. He was elected to the South Dakota Public Utilities Commission in 1986, 1992 and 1998, and elected Chairman in 1989 and again in 1997. He is currently a member of the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners (NARUC), the Administration Subcommittee and the Board of Directors, and is Chair of Committee on Electricity. He is past President of the Mid-American Regulatory Commissioners (MARC). Jim served on the Advisory Board of the Electric Power Research Institute (EPRI).

Jim and his wife, Bernice, raised five children on their family farm just east of Wessington Springs, South Da-

A Little History...

The arrival of the railroad in Dakota Territory caused great excitement. It would bring the much needed and appreciated transportation services to the remote plains. Along with the excitement quickly came disappointment: there was only one railroad – a monopoly – so it could charge whatever the travelers would pay. The settlers felt they were being cheated, so they took their complaints to the territorial government.

In 1882, the Territorial Legislature created an ad hoc committee to deal with railroad issues. Each year the committee became more burdened with the impact railroads had on Dakota Territory. Committee members felt there was no authority to enforce their decisions. In 1885, the Territorial Legislature established the Board of Railroad Commissioners. Its powers and duties were implemented in 1886.

The first session of the South Dakota Legislature (1889) expanded the Commission, increasing its powers and duties. The Board consisted of three members serving a two-year term, or at the pleasure of the Governor.

Since most grain facilities were adjacent to the railroads, regulation of grain warehouses was added to the Board's jurisdiction in 1890. In 1897, Commissioner offices became elected positions, accountable to the voting public. Each term of office was defined as a six-year term, with one Commission position elected each two years during the general election. Amendments in 1897 also gave the Commissioners the power to establish and enforce railroad rates.

In 1909, the Legislature abolished the Telephone Commission (created in 1907) and placed authority over telephone and telegraph operation with the Board of Railroad Commissioners.

In 1925, South Dakota became one of the first states to regulate for-hire motor carriers to assure public safety and reasonable rates. Freight rates, service territories and annual permits requiring adequate insurance became part of the Commission's responsibility. The Board was authorized to develop facts for presentation to the Interstate Commerce Commission and various courts. In 1937, the Commission was given authority to test and inspect heavy scales weighing one thousand pounds and over. Later, the scale authority was assigned to Commerce and Consumer Affairs.

In 1939, the name was changed to the Public Utilities Commission to reflect the wider range of responsibility.

In 1975, the State Legislature granted the Commission regulation over natural gas and electric utilities.

The Commission...

Consists of three members elected at-large. Commissioners each serve staggered, 6-year terms. The current Public Utilities Commission is given legislative and statutory authority under Title 49 of the South Dakota Code.

What we do...

- ⇒ Assist the public in making wise utility choices, promote consumer utility interests through public policy, and resolve disputes between customers and their utilities. We also regulate the rates and service quality of investor-owned electric, natural gas, and telephone utilities.
- ⇒ Regulate territorial jurisdiction over all retail electric companies, including cooperatives, independents, and municipals.
- ⇒ Register interstate for-hire motor carriers.
- ⇒ Operate the South Dakota Do-Not-Call Registry.
- ⇒ Administer the state's one-call notification center, which locates underground facilities.
- ⇒ Operates the natural gas pipeline safety program.
- ⇒ License and inspect state public storage, state public grain warehouses, and grain dealers.
- ⇒ Provide information and resources to property owners interested in wind energy development.

- ☛ Spearheaded the Do-Not-Call List to provide relief to South Dakotans from unwanted telemarketing calls; registered more than 148,000 South Dakota phones with the program, resulting in a dramatic decrease in telemarketing calls for those consumers after the October 1st start-up implementation date;
- ☛ Helped make South Dakota's first major wind farm a reality near Highmore; resolved important contract issues between landowners and developer; acted as a resource for landowners and their attorneys; assisted developer on many legal and technical issues throughout the planning and construction of the 40-megawatt, 27-turbine farm;
- ☛ Intervened in the NorthWestern bankruptcy on behalf of South Dakota consumers and ratepayers;
- ☛ Advocated for improved cellular and wireless phone systems; opened dialogue with providers and beefed-up consumer protection and public information efforts; acted as a liaison between local governments and companies resulting in new towers being erected in Parker and Howard; and held discussions with cellular providers regarding major infrastructure investments in SD for 2004;
- ☛ Participated in events recognizing more than $174 million in new investment in our state's infrastructure including dedication of AC-DC transmission tie near Rapid City ($70 million project), and groundbreaking and dedication of Hyde County Wind Farm ($40 million), and announcement of proposed new natural gas combustion turbine near Sioux Falls ($64 million);
- ☛ Received more than 2,500 consumer contacts; answered thousands of consumer questions regarding phone service, natural gas, electricity, wind energy, trucking, grain storage; resolved disputes between consumers and utilities oftentimes resulting in refunds;
- ☛ Revoked S&S Communications' certificate of authority to sell telecommunication services and fined the company $13,400; answered questions from hundreds of customers and received approximately 150 formal complaints against the company;
- ☛ Successfully lobbied for removing the PUC from the state's "gag law" enabling our office to more effectively communicate with consumers and warn the public of scams;
- ☛ Obtained a final judgement of approximately $119,000 for non-payment against Midwest Marketing on behalf of eight grain elevators. Midwest was also charged with 42 separate violations of purchasing grain without a bond/license ($4,200 penalty in favor of the state). A permanent injunction was also obtained barring Midwest Marketing from doing business in SD without both a bond and license;

HIGHLIGHTS continued

- ☛ Hosted national wind conference in Huron featuring internationally, regionally, and locally renowned wind development experts that was attended by South Dakota landowners, civic leaders, legislators, and economic development leaders, and others from throughout the nation interested in wind energy;
- ☛ Acted as resource for consumers on natural gas prices; promoted new provided materials to the public on how to minimize the impact of rising costs using the public media and the PUC's website; met with natural gas providers before heating season to review their purchasing and public information programs; and
- ☛ Increased public outreach through appearances at trade shows, fairs, senior centers, fraud seminars and community meetings; unveiled more consumer-friendly website; and cooperated closely with Governor's Office, Office of Attorney General, State Legislature, local governments, and utilities providers and trade associations on numerous consumer issues.
- ☛ On March 14, 2003, Qwest Corporation filed to reclassify local exchange services from noncompetitive to fully competitive. If granted, this petition would free Qwest to set its own local rates. Qwest and several intervenors reached an agreement outside of hearing, and filed this agreement for PUC approval. The PUC required several clarifications to the stipulation, and then approved it as amended. As a result, the reclassification will become effective January 1, 2004.

REGULATED UTILITY COMPANIES

The Commission has territory, complaint and quality of service authority over all natural gas, electric and telecommunication utilities operating with South Dakota. Certain utilities are exempt from the Commission's rate regulation. They include municipal, rural electric cooperatives and small, independent and cooperative telephone companies. The Commission retains its switched access rate making authority for all telecommunications companies providing local service, including small, independent and cooperative companies.

The following investor-owned electric and natural gas companies are rate regulated by the Commission:

Aquila, Inc.
Black Hills Power
MidAmerican Energy Company
Montana-Dakota Utilities Co.
Northwestern Energy
Otter Tail Power Company
South Dakota Intrastate Pipeline Company
Xcel Energy

Mission Statement

To serve and protect the public by ensuring safe, reliable and high quality utility services at rates reflecting either a competitive market, in areas where competition develops, or fair regulation, in areas where competition does not exist. We do this also by keeping the public informed so they can make wise choices, by promoting their interests through public policy, and by resolving disputes between customers and their utilities and between competing utilities.

Our Vision

To be the primary expert, the principle information source, the consumer protector, the educator and problem solver for all utility matters falling within the public domain.

The logo for the South Dakota Public Utilities Commission. It features the words "South Dakota" in a red, cursive script font, with a red underline that extends to the right. Below this, the words "Public Utilities Commission" are written in a dark blue, bold, sans-serif font.
