INTERROGATORIES INSTRUCTIONS

15. Each Interrogatory shall be answered separately and fully in writing under oath.
16. Each Interrogatory should be answered upon Dakota Access' entire knowledge and based upon all information that is available to Dakota Access or subject to reasonable inquiry by Dakota Access. This includes all information in Dakota Access' possession or the possession of Dakota Access' attorneys, advisers, employees, agents, or other persons directly or indirectly employed by or connected with the Dakota Access or its attorneys and anyone else otherwise subject to Dakota Access' control.
17. If any answer is qualified, state specifically the terms of each qualification and the reasons for it. If you are unable to answer any Interrogatory fully and completely after exercising due diligence to secure the information necessary to make a full and complete answer, state the part that can be answered and answer the same in full to the extent possible. State further and specifically the reason(s) why the remainder cannot be answered, and state whatever information or knowledge you may have concerning the unanswered portions.
18. If Dakota Access does not have adequate knowledge to fully answer an Interrogatory, say so, but make a reasonable and good faith effort to obtain the information by asking other persons or organizations, unless the information is equally available to the asking party.
19. Whenever an Interrogatory may be answered by referring to a document, Dakota Access may specify the document, in sufficient detail to enable the asking party to locate and identify it as readily as you could, and attach such document as an exhibit to the response.
20. In responses to these discovery requests, Dakota Access should use all such defined terms with the same meaning or definition adopted by the Tribe. If Dakota Access uses any of terms differently than the Tribe, please indicate the particular definition or meaning that you are ascribing to any defined, collective, or unspecific term or phrase in the response to each discovery request.
21. Where a claim of privilege is asserted in responding or objecting to any discovery requested in these Interrogatories and information is not provided on the basis of such assertion, Dakota Access shall, in its response or objection, identify the nature of the privilege (including work product) that is being claimed. When any privilege is claimed, Dakota Access shall indicate, as to

- B. the general subject matter of the document;
- C. the date of the document;

23. If, in answering the Interrogatories, Dakota Access claims any ambiguity in either the Interrogatories or in an applicable definition or instruction, identify in your response the language Dakota Access considers ambiguous and state the interpretation Dakota Access is using in responding.

24. The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa; and the use of any tense of any verb shall also include within its meaning all other tenses of that verb.

REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS INSTRUCTIONS

25. These Document Requests include and are applicable to electronically-stored information, including any documents in electronic format. The term "electronically-stored information" refers to any original and any non-identical copies (whether non-identical because of notes made on copies or embedded or attached comments, annotations, transmissions, notations, or highlighting of any kind), of electronically- or digitally-stored information, including but not limited to, programming notes or instructions, activity listings of electronic mail receipts or transmittals, output resulting from the use of any software program, including word processing documents, spreadsheets, database files, charts, graphs and outlines, electronic mail or email, operating systems, source code of all types, programming languages, linkers and compilers, peripheral devices, external drives, PDF files, PRF files, PST files, batch files, ASCII files, crosswalks, code keys, pull down tables, logs, file layouts or any miscellaneous files or file fragments, regardless of the media on which they reside and regardless of whether said electronic data consists of an active file, backup file, deleted file or file fragment. Electronically-stored information also includes data stored on computer memory or memories, hard disks, floppy disks, zip drives, CD-ROM discs, Blackberry or other handheld devices, Instant Messenger programs, Bernoulli Boxes or their equivalents, magnetic tapes, microfiche, punched cards, punched tape, computer chips (including, without limitation, EPROM, PROM, ROM or RAM of any kind) or media cards on or in any other vehicle for electronic or digital data storage or transmittal.

26. All responsive and/or relevant electronically-stored information is to be preserved in native format with all corresponding metadata and embedded data intact. Adequate preservation of electronically-stored information requires intervention to prevent loss due to routine operations. Continued use of your computers and other devices may cause electronically-stored information to be altered or erased. Consequently, alteration and erasure may result from your failure to act diligently to prevent loss or corruption of electronically-stored information. Therefore, to the extent you have not already done so, you must act affirmatively to properly segregate relevant information, as well as applicable hardware and software, to prevent loss or corruption.

27. If any document which you are requested to produce or identify herein was at one time in existence, but has been lost, discarded or destroyed, identify in writing each document and provide the following information:

- A. the date or approximate date it was lost, discarded or destroyed;
- B. the circumstances and manner in which it was lost, discarded or destroyed;
- C. the reason or reasons for disposing of the document (if discarded or destroyed);

- E. the identity of the person(s) who lost, discarded, or destroyed the document;

28. If any request for documents is deemed to call for the production of privileged or work product materials, and such privilege or work product protection is asserted, provide the following information, unless the parties have entered into an agreement providing otherwise:

- A. the reason for withholding the document;
- B. a statement of the basis for the claim of privilege, work product or other ground of non-disclosure;
- C. a brief description of the document, including:
 - i. the date of the document;
 - ii. number of pages, attachments and appendices of this documents;
 - iii. the names of its author(s) or preparer(s) and an identification by employment and title of each such person;
 - iv. the name of each person who was sent, shown, or received a blind or carbon copy of the document, together with an identification of each such person's employer and job title;
 - v. the present custodian of the document;
 - vi. the subject matter of the document; and
 - vii. the type or nature of the document.

29. In responding to each Document Request, produce all documents that are in your possession, custody, or control, including, but not limited to, those maintained or stored by attorneys and all other persons acting or purporting to act on your behalf.

30. If you know of any documents responsive to a particular Document Request but cannot produce them, so indicate in your response, produce all documents responsive to that Document

Request which are in your possession, custody, or control, and identify each person who you believe has additional documents responsive to that Document Request.

31. If Dakota Access objects to any part of a Document Request, produce all documents responsive to those parts of the Document Request to which Dakota Access does not object.

32. Each of the following Document Requests is continuing in nature. Accordingly, if, after serving a response to any Document Request or producing any documents responsive thereto, or any part thereof, Dakota Access obtains or becomes aware of additional documents responsive to such Document Request, or become aware that in some material respect to a previous response or document production is incomplete or incorrect, Dakota Access is required to supplement its response and/or your document production.

33. Documents are to be produced in full. If any requested Document cannot be produced in full, produce it to the extent possible, indicating which Document, or portion of that Document, is being withheld, and the reason that Document is being withheld.

34. Documents attached to each other should not be separated. To the extent documents have been separated, links to relevant attachments or identification, in list form, of corresponding attachment information shall be produced.

35. Dakota Access must produce the original of each Document requested together with all non-identical copies and drafts of that Document. If the original of any Document cannot be located, provide a copy in lieu thereof, which shall be legible and bound or stapled in the same manner as the original.

36. Documents which are maintained in the usual course of business in hardcopy form are to be produced in hardcopy form, unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties. To the extent such documents have been copied and converted to electronic form, you are instructed to so advise the requesting party prior to actual production to permit the parties to assess and discuss the extent to which such documents should be produced in electronic form, and, if so, the requested characteristics of such a production.

37. Electronically-stored information shall be produced in such fashion as to identify the location (i.e., the network file folder, hard drive, back-up tape or other location) where it is stored and, where applicable, the natural person in whose possession it was found (or on whose hardware device they reside or are stored) and the business address of each respective custodian. In addition, a separate list identifying all custodians for whom electronically-stored information is being produced and the corresponding bates range(s) of documents/information for each respective custodian is hereby requested.

38. Unless otherwise provided or agreed upon by the parties, databases and spreadsheets are to be produced in native format, with all corresponding metadata and embedded data intact and all cells of information accessible, including, but not limited to notes, comments, embedded formulas, headings, column titles and hidden cells.

39. Unless otherwise provided or agreed upon by the parties, PowerPoint or other similar electronic presentation files shall be produced in native format with all objective metadata, and other metadata, including, but not limited to notes, comments, presentations scripts and embedded formulas.

40. In the event that documents originally maintained in hard copy form are converted to electronic form such documents are to be produced in a searchable format, to be discussed and agreed upon by the parties, and with any compiled objective coding information and/or objective metadata intact and/or linked.

41. If you produce an electronically-stored or converted document which has attachments, enclosures, and/or exhibits, such attachments, enclosures, and/or exhibits should also be produced and proximately linked to the document containing the attachments, enclosures, and/or exhibits.

42. The fact that a document has been or will be produced by another party (or non-party) does not relieve you of the obligation to produce your copy of the same document, even if the two documents are identical in all respects.
