

On September 21, 2022, Montana-Dakota Utilities Co. filed with the South Dakota Public Utilities Commission a proposed new rate schedule, High Density Contracted Demand Response Rate 45, for electric service to qualifying data center-type facilities housing high density computer processing technology in South Dakota. The proposed new rate schedule and the South Dakota rules and regulations are available in this office for inspection.