Hi Logan,

We're a year-end publicly traded company. We are in the midst of our year-end audit and 10-K preparations for filing with the SEC. Would it be possible for you to move your audit work to a less busy time for us, say after April 1st?

Mr. Haaser,

I'm forwarding you an email that was sent to Dr. Oliver Peoples. We still have not received a response so I am sending this email to verify if the message was received and hopefully get a response as to Yield 10's plan going forward. As a reminder, there is a statutory deadline of five working days for inspector requests. (See SDCL 49-45-26.)

Thanks,

Subject: Yield 10 - SD License

Dr. Oliver Peoples,

Earlier today you spoke with our Grain Warehouse manager Cody Chambliss about your grain buyers license in South Dakota. The below email was sent to Charles Haaser on February 28, 2024 for a remote inspection. We would still need that information completed and verification that any purchases of grain in South Dakota have been paid in full. We recommend Yield 10 Bioscience INC (Yield 10) surrenders their grain buyers license in South Dakota. We will file a docket and publish in South Dakota newspapers for the 90-day bond claim period. If Yield 10 chooses not to surrender we will go forward with the process for revocation as Yield 10 does not meet minimum financial criteria for a Grain Buyers license in South Dakota. Please contact our office with the requested data concerning purchases in South Dakota and your decision to voluntarily surrender the license or proceed with a revocation docket. The statutes and rules pertaining to this matter are found below. Please respond with this information within 5 days pursuant to SDCL 49-45-26.

Regards,
Logan Schaeffbauer

The commission may assess a civil fine in an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars for each day requested materials are withheld, up to a maximum of twenty thousand dollars per licensing period, as set forth in § 49-45-3.

49-45-16. Grounds for suspension of grain buyer's license--Hearing--Revocation.

The commission may immediately suspend the license of a grain buyer and the grain buyer shall surrender the license to the commission if:
