Noma Welter was also opposed to the bond. Noma's concern was that we build the school and then not have the funding to operate it. If the state cuts our sparsity funding, what reserve we have won't last long. If we build a school, she wants to make sure we have funding to keep it going. She said we also need the administration in there. Maybe we should look at a 50 or 60 year building instead of 100 years. We have to be able to operate it if we build it.

Bret said we don't want to build a building and not have it work for us. Most of the public input he got wanted the administration offices in the school. If we don't have a school, we could have a lot of school staff out of employment, and businesses in town closing. It's not just the ranchers, it's everybody.

There were more comments from others, some for another vote, some not.

The board appointed several more members to the Facility Advisory Board including Squeek Haines, Ben Bachman, Greg Fisher, Cathy Smith, Blake Finkbeiner, Mick and Dave Kennedy. They will meet as soon as possible and come up with some more ideas, etc.

Mr. Dutton is going to visit with the Secretary of Education and Sec. of Finance to get more information on time frame, etc. to determine if we have sufficient time to hold another election. The board may hold a special meeting soon to set another election date and amount, if that is what is decided.

We may have a second chance to build a new school, so let's think about what's right for our kids and our community.

Poverty-fighting Horizons project receives new funding, continues to help South Dakota towns

Forty South Dakota communities will continue to work with the South Dakota Cooperative Extension Service in the Horizons Community Development program over the next three years.

The South Dakota Cooperative Extension Service recently received additional funding through a U.S. Department of Agriculture Rural Community Development Initiative and the Northwest Area Foundation to expand their efforts in targeted rural communities.

Communities participating in Horizons over the past three years include Armour, Big Stone City, Bison, Box Elder, Cando, Dupree, Eden/Roslyn, Estelline, Eureka, Faith, Frederick, Gregory, Harding County, Hot Springs, Hyde County, Ironsboro, Isabel, Kadoka, Kimball, Leola, Montrose, Murdo, Newell, Oldham, Philip, Presho, Reliance, Sanborn Central, Scotland, Sisseton, St. Francis, Timber Lake, Tripp, Tyndall, Volin/Gayville, Wagner, Wheatstone Valley, and Whitewood.

Porcupine and Kyle also have joined the new effort.

Horizons communities currently are progressing on goals they have set in their written plans. The new funding will target four areas that appeared frequently as goals in a high percentage of those plans. They include developing entrepreneurial support, sustainable local food systems, youth involvement in community, and leadership/facilitation development.

The South Dakota Cooperative Extension Service uses community coaches to provide technical assistance, and partners with other community development agencies in the state to deliver education and resources to Horizons communities. The Horizons project is aimed at strengthening leadership to reduce poverty in rural communities. Ultimately, the program builds local capacity to improve the lives for area residents.

For more information, call Extension Specialist Karla Troutman at 605-658-4700 or Extension Specialist Kari Franckle at 605-656-6972.

NOTICE

Faith Municipal Telephone Company provides assistance to qualifying low-income subscribers to help them establish and maintain telephone service. This assistance is provided via the company's Lifeline, Link Up and Toll Limitation offerings. Lifeline assistance lowers the cost of basic, monthly local telephone service by waiving the end user line charge ($6.50) and by reducing the monthly service bill by $1.75. Link Up reduces the cost of initiating new telephone service. Eligible consumers can receive a 50% discount off of the one-time charges associated with initiating telephone service, up to a maximum of $30.00. Qualifying consumers can also get a deferred payment schedule for remaining costs of up to $200.00. Toll Limitation Service allows eligible customers to block access to long distance from their local telephone number at no cost.

Eligibility criteria include participation in any of the following programs:

- Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP);
- Federal Public Housing Assistance or Section 8 housing;
- Medicaid;
- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) (aka Food Stamps);
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI);
- Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF); or
- National School Lunch Program's free lunch.

In addition, those whose household income is at or below 135% of the federal poverty guidelines are eligible for the low-income assistance provided by the Lifeline and Link Up programs and Toll Limitation Service. (2009 guidelines estimated that a household comprised of four people would need to have a total income equal to or less than $29,768 to meet this criterion.)

Anyone who thinks they might be eligible for these programs should contact Faith Telephone Company at 967-2261.

BILLING NAME & ADDRESS DISCLOSURE

When you place a calling card call, or accept a collect call or third-number billed call, your telephone company is required to provide your billing name and address to the telecommunications service provider that handled the call, if that provider requests. Your telephone company will continue to provide billing name and address information to telecommunications service providers for other account matters, such as customer service, servicing your account, to prevent fraud or when you move from one location to another.

LOW INCOME ASSISTANCE AVAILABLE

Faith Municipal Telephone Company is authorized to provide two federal telephone assistance programs that were developed in response to concerns about the affordability of telephone service for low income citizens.

Lifeline subscribers also may receive blocking of long distance calling on their telephone line at no charge.

Link Up provides eligible subscribers also may receive blocking of long distance calling on their telephone line at no charge.

Link Up provides eligible subscribers with reduced connection charges for their basic home telephone service. This reduction is 50% of applicable charges or $30.00, whichever is less. PAY-PER-CALL BILLING RIGHTS

Some companies offer a variety of informational services using phone numbers beginning with 900. There is usually a charge for calls to these numbers. The price and content of these services are established by the companies providing the information.

For 900 billing disputes or inquiries, please call your local telephone company. You have 60 days from the date of the bill to dispute a 900 billing error review. You have the right to withhold payment of the disputed 900 charges during the billing error review. No collection activity for disputed 900 charges will occur while the charges are under investigation. After investigation, if it is determined that the disputed 900 charges are legitimate, the long distance company, or the information provider, may proceed with outside collections against your account for nonpayment of these charges. Your local and long distance service cannot be disconnected for nonpayment of 900 charges. Failure to pay legitimate 900 charges may result in involuntary blocking of access to 900 services. Voluntary blocking of access to 900 services is available upon request from your local telephone company.
